Seaton is latest East Devon town to launch food bank

SEATON is the latest East Devon town to offer a food bank to those in need.

Food banks already exist in Honiton and Axminster and 'food poverty' in Axe Valley means there is demand in Seaton too.

Foodbank in Seaton is a project overseen by Christians Together in Seaton, supported by all the churches in the town and many many other local organisations and individuals.

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Foodbank in Seaton secretary Simon d'Albertanson said: "Inspired by food banks and aware of the reality of 'food poverty' in the Axe Valley, a group of like-minded individuals spent the last few months researching and planning the practicalities of opening a food bank in Seaton.

"The aim of the food bank is simple; to provide a nutritionally balanced supply of food to anyone within the Seaton area who has no food and no means of obtaining food for a minimum of three days.

"There are many reasons why people might find themselves in emergency food poverty; an unexpected large bill, a sudden change or stop in income or benefits or even a loss of money due to a fraudster or a scam.

"Whatever the reason, the food bank will not judge or condemn - but it will offer unconditional nutritional support and, if requested, information about further sources of help and support to address the underlying causes of the emergency."

It was also explained that the food bank works on a voucher system and will receive referrals from local agencies such as Citizens Advice Bureau.

Those found to be in need by these agencies will be offered a voucher that can be exchanged for three days' supply of food from the food bank.

The food bank will operate in the Community Resources Centre in Fore Street each Wednesday afternoon from 2pm-4pm, the first session being on November 7th.

Foodbank in Seaton welcomes donations of non-perishable food at any of the churches in Seaton, Axmouth, Beer and the town hall in Seaton.

Suitable foods include: cereals, tinned food, tea bags, instant coffee long-life or powdered milk, fruit juice, sugar, pasta, rice, instant mashed potato, biscuits, snack bars, squash plus toilet rolls, female sanitary products and baby food.

A complete list can be found online at www.seatonbaptistchurch.co.uk

If you would like more information about donating to, accessing or volunteering with Foodbank in Seaton, contact Hugh or Simon on 07899 086169 or email foodbankseaton@gmail.com

More than £1,200 raised for Cancer Research

THE Seaton and Axmouth branch of Cancer Research UK raised more than £1,200 from a three-day collection and other activities in Tesco's Seaton store.

Branch member Paula Vickers said: "We also held a raffle and sale of Christmas cards in the entrance of our local store.

"Thanks to all of the wonderful people in the area doing their shopping at Tesco, we raised £1,261.94 for our charity and would like to say a huge thank you to all of those who donated so generously - both financially and by way of their time in the case of our volunteers.

"Of course we also owe a great deal to Tesco, who enabled us to raise such a wonderful sum."

Town hall cabaret night

MEMBERS of Seaton and District Lions will be hosting their annual cabaret evening at Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, December 15th.

The audience will be treated to a three-course meal alongside entertainment provided by classical singer Stephanie Coombs, singing duo Hee Shee and comedy act Spencer and Lee.

The evening will commence at 7:30pm and tickets cost £14 per person, which can be obtained from the town hall box office on 01297 625699 or from Roger Broom on 01297 24982.

Sport

Fenny is last 16 of county cup

FENITON marched in to the last 16 of the Graddon Vending sponsored Devon Premier Cup with an 11-0 annihilation of visiting Putford at Acland Park. The visitors had no answer to Charlie Selley who struck six times!

Colaton Raleigh also recorded a fine cup win as they beat Hideaway Cafe 5-4.

Rikki Pitter bagged a hat-trick for Raleigh who came from behind three times and played for 55 minutes with 10 men.

Raleigh are now in the quarter-finals of the Fire-place Devon Senior Cup where they will be joined by Honiton Town who beat Brixham AFC 4-2 at Mountbatten Park. Darren Witt, Tim Genders, Ryan Dunn and Ben Price (pen) scored for the Lacemen who return to Fresh Devon & Exeter League division one action on Saturday with the visit of Halwill while Colaton Raleigh entertain Clyst Valley Reserves.

In the same division Sidmouth Town Reserves went down 2-1 at home against Exeter Civil Service and will hope for better when they travel to fellow mid-tablers Topsham Town.

This week's local news in numbers

1956 THE year Colyford Memorial Hall was first opened. It was officially reopened after refurbishment on Saturday - the same day exactly 56 years later.

11 THE number of goals scored by Feniton in their Devon Premier Cup tie at Ackand Park against Putford.

165 THE number of new homes a developer wants to build in Ottery St Mary on land between Barrack Road, the bowling club and the cricket club.

235 THE amount raised by Honiton Golf Club Ladies for Children In Need.

Teenage driver dies in crash

SKY lanterns have been released in memory of an Axminster teenager who died in a car crash last Wednesday.

Tragedy struck when 18-year-old Tom Chubb's black Porsche collided with a van on the A358 at Musbury at about 10.20pm on October 31st.

Emergency services rushed to the scene, near Trill, but the teenager died at the scene.

Tom, the son of businessman and East Devon District Council member Iain Chubb, a keen motoring enthusiast, was the only occupant of his car.

The 44-year-old driver of the van and the one passenger escaped serious injury.

Floral tributes have been laid at the crash site along with other tributes including a car radio and bottles of his favourite cider.

Approximately 70 friends of the car-mad youngster met at Bottle Inn, Marshwood, one of his favourites pubs, the night after the accident to pay their own tributes.

On Friday evening, a similar number of friends gathered in the car park at Axminster Railway Station.

Tom's family was at the front of a procession in one of his cars, a Volkswagen Bora.

The procession drove to Exmouth, where sky lanterns were released in his memory.

A close friend of the family, who did not wish to be named, said: "It was quite overwhelming for everyone involved."

HONITON

Thousands protest

FENITON residents joined thousands of protesters at Sidmouth's Port Royal for a mass rally against East Devon District Council's proposals for regeneration and redevelopment.

Led by campaign group Fight For Feniton's Future, residents joined the Save our Sidmouth (SOS) group which has been fighting in the town for months against the local development plan.

Residents and members of Fight For Feniton's Future campaign group showed their disapproval of EDDC voiced their continued concerns over the recent appeal decision allowing Wainhomes to build 50 homes on agricultural land next to Louvigny Close in the village.

From the editor's chair Here is the sad travel news

IT'S always sad when a long established business closes but doubly so when it provides a service that has been much in demand over the years.

There will be many in and around Axminster who will regret the pending closure of Bath Travel in George Street from where thousands of holidays have been booked and arranged for local people over the years.

We are not able to officially confirm the reasons why a branch of one of the South West's most successful travel agents has decided to close its Axminster branch.

We also understand that the Chard branch is closing as well.

No one from Bath Travel's head office in Bournemouth was available to speak to us this week as the only person able to do so was in Mallorca.

Local staff were instructed not to speak to the press, which is understandable and usually the case in such circumstances.

The Axminster branch employed five staff, although the manager was the only full-time member. We can only assume that the decision has been made in the light of the continual difficult trading conditions.

Bath Travel has built up a fine reputation over the years with 64 branches in the South West and specialised in reasonably priced cruises, bringing that form of luxurious holiday within the price range of many more people.

Bath Travel occupy prime premises in George Street and it is to be hoped that these get snapped up quickly. With Webster's eyesore still festering just around the corner, Axminster does not need any more long term empty shops.

There has been some encouraging news on the economy in recent weeks with the politicians telling us we are coming out of recession. Really?

I'm not sure there are many people running businesses in Pulman's Country, with a few notable exceptions, who would agree with that judgement but there are signs that there is some light at the end of the austerity tunnel.

Let's hope so.

Another food bank for those in need

SEATON is the latest East Devon town to offer a food bank to those in need.

OTTERY St MARY

Plans for 165 homes

A MASSIVE housing development has been proposed for Ottery St Mary.

A company named Prockter Land LLP has signalled its intention to build 165 homes and a residential care home on land between Barrack Road and the bowls and cricket clubs.

The developer says the proposal would boost population and "increase viability" of the town.

Details of the major outline planning application were made public by East Devon District Council (EDDC) last week.

The application also involves provision of public open space, landscaping and associated infrastructure.

The design and access statement alone runs to 35 pages and informs that "a proportion" of the 165 homes would be affordable, and that the care home would have 60 beds.

The developer also said in the statement: "The development will bring forward much-needed new market and affordable housing – and in doing so create a larger population which will help contribute to enhancing Ottery St Mary in the future by increasing the viability of the town centre and supporting existing facilities."

COLYFORD

Farmer elected freeman of borough

WELL-KNOWN local farmer and historian, Colin Pady, has been made the first ever Freeman of the Ancient Borough of Colyford.

The honour was bestowed on Mr Pady at the annual general meeting of Colyford Burgesses on Friday evening, when Howard West was also named as new Mayor of Colyford.

Mr Pady was recognised for his work in the village and efforts put into many local organisations and events, particularly the Goose Fayre, which he helped to re-establish about 30 years ago.

The proposal to make Mr Pady a Freeman of the Borough came from the Mayor and was seconded by Geoff Marshall, who said: "There is no doubt that Colin thoroughly deserves the honour of becoming a Freeman of the Ancient Borough of Colyford.

"He is not only renowned for his work for the village but also, over many years, has been heavily involved in establishing, helping, and taking a major part in many of our local organisations.

"He has served as our Mayor on several occasions, which entailed plenty of work for the Borough and also organising Borough meetings, Mayor's dinners and Beating of the Bounds. Thirty odd years ago he re-established our very popular Goose Fayre, and much of the work in setting up and dismantling the fayre would not be possible without the tireless contribution of Colin and his tractor."

SIDMOUTH

Angry residents march on Knowle

THOUSANDS of protestors met at Sidmouth's Port Royal for a mass rally to protest against East Devon District Council's proposals for regeneration and redevelopment.

Led by the Save our Sidmouth (SOS) group who have been fighting for months against the local development plan, the rally attracted more than 3500 people, who came from across East Devon carrying placards and chanting against the council plans.

Chairman Richard Thurlow and spokesman Robert Crick led the SOS group, which is made up of members of the Sid Vale Association, Chamber of Commerce, Vision Group for Sidmouth and the Hospitality Association.

Mr Thurlow addressed the huge crowd at Port Royal saying: "Our focus is the opposition towards the council's plan to destroy our areas of outstanding natural beauty and to take away 30 per cent of our parkland here in Sidmouth by taking away the Knowle and replacing it with 50 homes and a residential home.

"We are overwhelmed and grateful to the huge number of people here today from all over East Devon – from Seaton and Beer to Budleigh Salterton, Feniton, Honiton, Tipton St John and Ottery St Mary Mr Crick added: "There is a magnificent amount of people here and it really shows that people power works. We are here to make Diviani hear us.

Seaton set to go to the polls

SEATON will be going to the polls to elect a new town councillor following the loss of former vice-chairman, Ray Morgan.

The election will take place from 7am until 10pm on Thursday, November 15th.

There are two candidates for the vacancy - Sharon Bruce of Townsend Avenue, Seaton, and John Barrington Rowell of Valley View Close, Seaton.

Polling stations will be situated at Seaton Town Hall.

PERSONAL STATEMENT OF SHARON BRUCE

I HAVE lived in Seaton for the past 14 years, enjoying the beauty of the seaside and the friendly spirit of the people of Seaton.

My husband David and I moved here with our son, James, and daughter, Victoria, and became involved with local events and groups.

We have so many fantastic groups in Seaton, including the Lions, the carnival group, the film club, the many children's groups, church groups, amateur dramatic groups and more recently Seaton's Voice, and other great organisations.

There has always been so much to enjoy and events to attend.

I have volunteered for groups including the Drop-In Centre, Rupert's Pre-School, Seaton Primary Group, St Gregory's

Sharon Bruce

Sunday School and the Seaton Visitor Centre. Wonderful people work for the benefit of the people of Seaton.

In all that I do:

- I am happy and friendly;
- Full of energy and enthusiasm;
- Hard working and positive.

I hope to help promote our lovely town to attract more people to visit and enjoy all that Seaton presently offers.

There is work to do to develop and create areas in need of investment, including the Seaton Heights Hotel site, the Racial site, and the land around Tesco and the seafront.

I am keen to work with potential investors to make happen the many suggested plans and ideas of the people of Seaton.

Some examples of work I consider we need to prioritise and make happen are areas designated for affordable housing, leisure facilities, and the development of the high street by attracting other viable businesses.

For all of us, as active residents of Seaton, we should take on the responsibility of caring for all that we have in Seaton, and thus create a brighter future for our young people.

PERSONAL STATEMENT OF JOHN BARRINGTON ROWELL

I HAVE lived in Seaton for 40 years and I love this town to bits.

Since losing my sight in 2005, I remained positive and have thrown myself into local groups, whilst promoting awareness for the blind and visually impaired.

I am a key committee member for the Seaton Visually Impaired group, the founder of Axe Valley Runners and a main organiser of the first ever Grizzly run, as well as being a current member of the Seaton and District Lions Club and the local Royal British Legion branch.

I have also worked closely with colleges, schools, and residential homes and hospitals raising awareness of disability and visual impairment.

I have also been involved in sponsoring and supporting charity work and even launched a pilot project to provide residents at Seaton Hospital with a tactile radio.

I hope to push the consideration of disabled people in Seaton in regards to proposals such as the new visitors centre and water taxi, so that these people can use the services with the greatest of ease and access.

Another priority is creating a safer environment in the town with hope to create a safer tactile environment around pavement furniture in places such as Queen Street and Jubilee Gardens.

Visual awareness training on the town council and for staff at stores such as Tesco is also important.

There are more than 250 blind people in Seaton who may not have the chance to vote because of the format of voting forms or not being able to get out.

Whatever happens, I love it here, and since losing my sight, I could never leave after such a fantastic response of support was shown for me.

It's not just Seaton, but the whole country that are still thinking that the blind or disabled aren't suitable to make decisions on behalf of the public, but if given the chance we can. People must look at the ability, not the disability.

John Barrington Rowell

Seaton and Beer will remember

SEATON'S branch of the Royal British Legion will remember the fallen in Windsor Gardens and St Gregory's Church this Sunday.

The first event takes place in front of the Field of Remembrance in Windsor Gardens at 9:30am. Everyone is invited to attend these poignant few minutes of reflection and remembrance. Hot drinks and refreshments will be available in the Town Hall after the event.

The focus then turns to the War Memorial in St Gregory's churchyard and, prior to the morning service, the Seaton branch of the RBL will once again be leading proceedings alongside many local organisations, public bodies and the community.

The names of the fallen are read, followed by the Last Post and the two minute silence at 11am. The silence is broken by the Reveille and then wreaths are laid at the foot of the War Memorial.

At the same time, poppies are laid on the war graves in the churchyard. The gathered ensemble will then make their way into St Gregory's Church.

Members of the Royal British Legion hope the public will support them during this year's Remembrance event and show their respects by attending the memorial services or even just donating and wearing a poppy.

● BEER villagers will remember the fallen with a service at St Michael's Church on November 11th.

Assembly at Beer's War Memorial will begin at 10:45am, followed by the reading of the roll of honour at 10:50am and the two minute silence at 11am.

The service in St Michael's Church will follow.

AFTER SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN NEW ZEALAND

Tina returns to her native Devon to continue her music ambitions

A MUSICIAN and former expat is preparing for her first Devon winter in 10 years, having returned from the generally warmer climes of New Zealand.

Tina Bridgman is a former Seaton resident and Axminster Secondary School head girl who moved to Sidmouth after a decade in New Zealand.

She started her working life at Barclays Bank in Axminster but now earns a living as a musician and guitar teacher despite having lost her left arm.

A Paralympic mindset was needed when Tina woke up in a hospital bed in New Zealand after a car accident in 2004.

But let's rewind the tape.

Tina and her family moved to Seaton when she was eight, and her interest in music started in earnest during her early teens.

She attended Axminster Secondary School (now Axe Valley Community College) and excelled by becoming head girl.

After leaving the school she got a job with Barclays Bank in Axminster and she also joined a band called Catch 22.

Her fellow band members were Andy Cable, David Somers, Alan West and David Hill - and Tina recalled: "Even though I couldn't play keyboard, I was the keyboard player and backing vocalist."

The band toured venues in the southwest for about two years.

In 1990, Tina wanted to "spread her wings" and went to Australia.

From Australia she went to New Zealand for six months and fell in love with the country.

Her guitar was an ever present companion and talking

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

about her time overseas, she said: "I had my first busking experience and performed my own material to sit-down audiences."

But her visa expired and Tina returned to Devon.

After one term studying at Dartington Music College, she moved around the UK and spent much time in the Brighton area.

In 1993 she had her first solo gig and she then joined a 13-piece group which performed at festivals across the UK over three years.

She subsequently joined a contemporary folk group as a backing vocalist, drummer and percussionist.

The year 1999 proved to be significant as Tina recorded her first album - Hearth - with musicians Richard Osborne and Matt Tweed.

The trio took the name Hearth and a second album - Deep Sun Inside - materialised in 2002 after which Tina took a break from music and returned to New Zealand.

She developed various skills and one source of income was making candles.

But things took a turn for the worse in July 2004.

She lived in Golden Bay, South Island, got a lift to work and the car hit black ice and smashed into a tree.

The driver was OK but Tina was airlifted to hospital

“Even though I had a break from music when it happened, my first thought was that I wouldn't be able to play guitar or swim again” with a broken collar bone and a badly damaged hand, which doctors had to amputate.

She said: "Even though I had a break from music when it happened, my first thought was that I wouldn't be able to play guitar or swim again."

But she has found ways of doing both, and is full of praise for the health service in New Zealand.

She was taken through the rehabilitation process and said: "I felt really supported and motivated to get back on with life."

"They said: 'You are basically a musician, so how are we going to get you back to it?'"

The answer was to send her on courses involving sound therapy, voice exploration and sound engineering.

She progressed to give voice and guitar lessons, and said: "I had never taught before but I was surprised how much I enjoyed it."

As time passed, though, Tina developed a case of homesickness and returned to the UK in March this year.

If it is permanent or not remains to be seen as she still has her stuff in storage in New Zealand.

She said: "I really missed Devon the last couple of years. I'm going to give it a go, it will be my first winter here for 10 years."

Adopting the motto "if you can talk you can sing", Tina held a voice workshop in Axminster on Saturday in the Christian Fellowship Hall, Musbury Road, which could be the first of many similar events.

To find out more and book a place, call Pat Hicks 01297 32838 or e-mail pathicks@btinternet.com

Tina is also doing a sponsored swim in aid of Aspire, which supports people with spinal injuries.

Judicial review on Cloakham plan to be held in December

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A DATE has been set for a court hearing that could have a major impact on Axminster.

The Administrative Court at The Royal Courts of Justice in London will undertake a judicial review on Tuesday, December 4th of East Devon District Council's (EDDC) decision to grant Axminster Carpets outline planning permission at Cloakham Lawn.

The controversial planning application caused heated debate, effectively splitting the town into two camps.

A town council meeting in March last year had to be rescheduled when it emerged that the chosen venue was too small to cope with the number of people trying to get in.

Axminster Carpets gained outline planning permission for up to 400 dwellings and up to 12,000 sq ft of employment space on land at Cloakham Lawn in September 2010.

The application was decided only a few weeks into a 12-week EDDC public consultation exercise on long-term planning strategy, calling into the question the point and purpose of the consultation exercise.

Pressure Group Save Our Parkland (SOP) was formed and expressed concern about traffic-related aspects of the proposed development, including the lack of a relief road.

At the time, Axminster Carpets said the development would allow the firm to compete at the highest level and inject an estimated £11.3 million into the local economy by 2012 in various ways.

But SOP - fronted by former Axminster Chamber of Commerce chairman Fred Wells and Fiona Hayes before Axminster resident Paul Arnott became the organisation's public face - applied for judicial review of EDDC's decision to grant planning permission.

Axminster Town Council also considered seeking a judicial review - which was when the over-crowded meeting took place - but eventually decided against.

The court approved SOP's application for judicial review last autumn, and EDDC CEO

Mark Williams said at the time: "This legal challenge takes place against the background of a high level of national political, professional, legal and public interest in the draft National Planning Policy Framework, and its likely implications."

The two parties may have been preparing cases behind the scenes, but the matter went very quiet for more than a year.

Last week, however, the court confirmed to Pulman's View that a date for the hearing has been set - Tuesday, December 4th.

♦ A judicial review is a legal process to challenge the lawfulness of a decision made by a public authority.

Cases are generally heard by a single judge sitting in open court.

Even if the court sides with SOP, EDDC would be able to make the same decision again, providing the decision is made in a lawful way.

Outline planning application is sought to determine if the type of proposal is compatible with the site/area in question.

♦ If an outline planning application is approved, a full planning application must be submitted and approved before construction can start.

Six groups £250 better off thanks to the Masons

SIX organisations are each £250 better off thanks to cheques from Axminster Masonic Lodge of Virtue and Honor.

Following a church service in The Minster on Sunday, October 28th, a cheque presentation was held in the nearby Masonic Hall in South Street.

The money was raised through various initiatives in the 2011-12 year under then Worshipful Master Kevin Lewis.

Cheques were presented to Axminster Primary School, St John Ambulance, Axminster Care Service, Devon Air Ambulance Trust, The RNLI and Macmillan Cancer Support.

County bosses promise action on pavement

HIGHWAY bosses have promised to improve a troublesome Axminster pavement after more than two years of falling and battered pedestrians.

The stretch of pavement in West Street, outside Fox & Sons, has taken its toll among pedestrians - but highway bosses have promised action.

A Devon County Council (DCC) told Pulman's View last week: "We have scheduled this work to be completed as soon as possible."

As previously reported, estate agents Amanda Curtis and Phil Roberts first highlighted the problem in August 2010, saying their workplace sometimes resembled an A&E department.

This was because several pedestrians had falls and the estate agents provided basic first aid until medics arrived.

At least one pedestrian was knocked unconscious

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

and a number of them required hospital treatment after falls on the tricky pavement.

One victim described the stretch of pavement as "very uneven, with several levels".

Mr Roberts contacted both DCC and Pulman's View as early as August 2010.

DCC's initial response was quick as a team inspected the pavement almost straight away.

But nothing tangible happened after that. A DCC spokesperson said there was room for improvement, possibly as part of the following year's footway maintenance programme.

But the project was not included and Mr Roberts contacted Pulman's View again two years later, in August 2012, after a sharp and sudden increase in falls.

DCC replied at the time: "We are investigating whether we are able to take this scheme forward as part of the 2012/13 Local Transport Plan programme."

A further DCC statement, issued on October 22nd, said: "We have scheduled this work to be completed as soon as possible."

The spokesperson couldn't give a precise date but stressed: "The work will take place."

Mr Roberts commented: "It is good they are going to do it, but it is late."

"The number of people who have gone down is unbelievable."

Ms Curtis added: "Seeing is believing. It will be nice to get it sorted."

AXE Valley Community College religious studies teacher Samuel Pillay is also a published author.

"GCSE Grade Boosters: Religious Studies - Philosophy and Ethics" was co-written with Jon Mayled, who is an educational consultant and author of more than 120 educational books on religious studies, philosophy and ethics.

Although only just published, the book has already been ordered by 75 plus secondary schools nationally.

Samuels said that he had identified a shortage of good, published material aimed at both students and teachers to help students boost their grade at GCSE in religious studies.

The two authors recently ran a workshop for all Year 9 students at the college, using the techniques featured in the book.

Why don't you give Slades a go?

Slades Bulk Collection Warehouse

Peter and Sarah at Slades Pet Warehouse

SLADES in Honiton are embracing change after recently moving to the town's Heathpark Estate.

Following the sale of the original Slade's Garden Centre and Pet Store on the corner of the Turk's Head Junction in 2008, Peter Scott Allen and his wife Sarah took over and for the last four years have concentrated on the pet supply side of the business. This year they decided to relocate the pet warehouse to the Heathpark Estate to continue the legacy of the thirty year old business.

Slades Pet Warehouse operates both from a store on Duchy Road and a collection warehouse on Gloucester Close, where customers have the chance to still get their vital pet supplies, wild bird feeds and small holding farm feeds as well as coal, logs and solid fuels.

With the recent move, Slades Pet Warehouse have had to reconfigure how they operate, working from two warehouses, one to pick up smaller supplies and order larger heavier bulk buys, and a second warehouse which works as a collection point for larger items with a focus on the wholesale and bulk trade in line with many operations within the Heathpark Estate.

Following the relocation at the beginning of September, the main focus has been to ensure that regular and new customers can fit comfortably into the new set up and are still able to pick up their regular supplies.

Mr Scott Allen said: "Most important is that our options were to either close completely or quickly find a way to remain in business for our customers of thirty plus years as well as the many new customers who we come in to contact with so often.

"Our emphasis is still on providing the best price, service and staff that we can, whilst continuing our service to the community.

"There has been confusion, where existing customers have seen the old site empty and presumed we have gone completely or have been muddled by the two new sites on the Heathpark Estate.

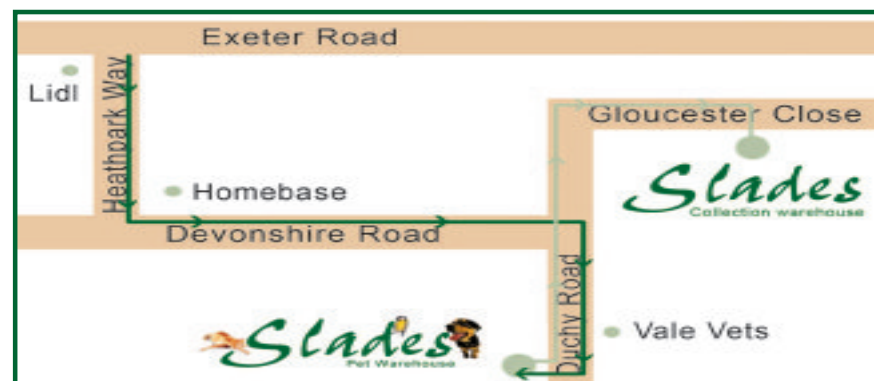

"However, once customers give it a go, they seem to be really happy with the new set up and are spreading the word.

"The set up is fairly simple- visitors to the store can first visit our pet warehouse which has all the smaller pet supplies on offer and there they can also order and pay for their heavier bulk items. Then all they need to do is drive less than a minute down the road to our warehouse, park up and we can load up their car for them before they are on their way again.

"It has been a mammoth task but Sarah and I are absolutely happy with the set up and we now have a whole new degree of certainty.

"We look forward to continuing our work and improving our business and we are looking forward to what the future on the Heathpark Estate will bring."

Slades Pet Warehouse is open from Monday to Saturday, 8.30am until 5.30pm. For more information visit www.sladeshoniton.co.uk or call 01404 45966.

Devon Retreat nominated for tourism award

A SEATON self catering establishment has been recognised for its dedication to visitors and excellence after being nominated for the Devon Tourism Awards' 'Self Catering Property of the Year.'

Devon Retreat in Seaton and Beer has been going from strength to strength, ever since owners Liz and Malcolm Robinson arrived in East Devon in 2007.

The self catering holiday experience, made up of the 300 year old Gallery and the Gospel Hall in Beer, and Upcott House on Old Beer

By Laura Goldsbury Noy

Road, has been recognised regularly for its high standards, countryside feel and expert finish.

After moving with their two boys from London in 2007, the couple have thrown themselves into the local tourism industry, opening up the three properties, preserving old features and the old fashioned characters of the buildings whilst modernising and refurbishing them to a five star standard.

Mr Robinson said: "We are so proud to be nominated as self catering property of the year amongst so many other establishments in Devon."

"Personally it's a recognition for all our hard work and fulfilment of a dream to restore such beautiful old buildings."

"Professionally its great to receive peer group recognition, that what we're doing is of a high enough standard to be considered for the category of self catering excellence in South West Tourism.

"We have bookings from far and wide from Europe, Australia and beyond. We play host to so many occasions from weddings to family reunions, birthdays and extended family holidays."

"We love it here and we love the pace of life, following on from a career in the Australian and British Army and Liz's career as a city research publisher in London."

"When we arrived, the properties were practically languishing unsold but we saw the beauty and although at first it seemed like a mad idea to restore them, the project has been driven by our passion to get the properties back to the beauty they deserve."

"It is a very satisfying business to be part of and we are very proud of our achievements, particularly after the recognition from the Devon Tourism Awards."

Sponsored walk raises £800

THERE was dry weather and warm sunshine as RNLI supporters set off on their 36th annual sponsored walk.

More than 15 supporters including Sam, the Jack Russell dog, joined members of Seaton, Beer and District branch of the RNLI as they walked from Money Acre Cross on the Farway Common Road to Colyton and on to Colyford.

The walkers then dispersed to walk on to either Seaton or Beer.

Harry Moore from Beer and Seaton man, Steve Atkins, have been dedicated walkers for the branch's annual walk for many years and managed to run the route back to Beer in under three hours.

The following day, a further two representatives walked the route to Colyton with their three children to boost funds.

Chairman of the Seaton and District RNLI, Wendy Cummins, said: "The total amount of money raised will be approximately £800 which is fantastic and we would like to thank everyone who took part in the walk or gave donations."

The next branch event will be a Christmas quiz night on Saturday, December 1st at Beer Social Club. Doors open at 7:30pm for an 8pm start.

Teams of four are invited and entry is £1.50 per person. A certificate and prize will be presented to the winning team.

Special radio will enhance hospital patients' lives

WELCOME NEW ADDITION TO SEATON HOSPITAL | Members of the Seaton and District Lions Club visited some of the Seaton Hospital residents to see how the radio they donated has made a difference. Pictured are members of the Lions club, resident Iris Brightwell and staff from Seaton Hospital with the new tactile radio

PATIENTS and residents at Seaton Hospital with visual impairments now have a new form of entertainment thanks to the Seaton & District Lions Club and the British Wireless for the Blind foundation.

A tactile radio – for those that are visually impaired or without sight – was donated to the hospital by members of the Seaton and District Lions Club, after Lion John Barrington Rowell requested the support on behalf of the British Wireless for the Blind charity.

After suffering with loss of sight himself, Mr Barrington Rowell found out first hand how important these radios could be, giving him the opportunity to catch up on important news, listen to his own music and enjoy entertainment whilst being easy to use without support from another person.

The radio is a versatile audio player featuring a CD, USB slot and cassette player, talking newspaper and 10 preset talking channels. It's easy to use for those with visual impairments with touchy feely buttons, hi visibility yellow controls and a large, easy to read LCD display screen.

Ninety-year-old Iris Brightwell is just one of the residents at Seaton Hospital with a visual impairment and was one of the first to try out the new radio.

She said: "I think the new radio is just excellent. I can't really watch television properly so it was nice just listening to the radio in short bursts alongside other residents in my room."

"The talking newspaper is just marvellous and it will help keep us entertained during the long days."

Matron of Seaton Hospital, Emma Bagwell added: "We are very grateful to the Lions and to John for their donation of the new radio."

"We will mainly use it for news with the talking newspaper as it keeps patients up to date and keeps that connection with the outside world.

"We hope in time that the radio will increase stimulation and motivation for those with visual impairments and that people will gain the confidence to use the controls without assistance with the radio's ease of operation."

"We are also planning on getting some story books and novels to play through the CD player or from a USB stick to spark imagination, as all the residents enjoyed listening to it."

President of the Seaton and District Lions, Neil Rutter, was pleased to hand over the radio and said: "We are very thankful to our fellow Lion and voluntary agent for the British Wireless for the Blind, John, for coming up with the idea to support the hospital."

"We are looking forward to hearing about the great use of the radio and the positive change it will make for hospital staff and residents alike."

Halloween fun at town hall

Seaton's Voice organise spooky children's party

AS PART of their children's entertainment programme, Seaton's Voice hosted a Halloween Party last week.

Much to their surprise, over 150 children - along with parents who made it more than 200 in total - packed the hall for ghoulish antics.

The venue was fully decorated for the occasion and there was also a smoke machine.

Paul Hotchkiss set the scene with spooky lighting, Halloween dance music and carved pumpkin and fancy dress competitions added to the atmosphere.

Activities included creepy cake decorating, mummy wrap, vampire doughnut attack, horrid hand lunge, ghostly forest walk and pass the grizzly parcel.

Roger Grose rounded off the evening to a fitting close with ghostly storytelling.

Tesco helped support the event by providing vouchers towards the food, drinks and sweets for all the children.

The group had a great response from parents and children who thoroughly enjoyed the party with many requests for Seaton's Voice to organise a Christmas Party this December.

A spokesperson for Seaton's Voice said: "We are absolutely thrilled with the success of the Halloween party, which we would love to make an annual event, and look forward to planning a Christmas party as requested."

The next event on Seaton's Voice calendar is a family matinee screening of the film 'Brave' on November 17th.

Former Racial site is priority for Seaton

FOLLOWING the decision by East Devon District Council Development Management Committee not to approve the final planning application enabling development at the derelict former Racial site to take place, Seaton Town Council held an extraordinary meeting on Thursday, October 25th.

Members were unanimous in their response that it was a priority for the town that this development commences.

The site, which is seen as vital for the economic input into the town, is a brownfield site that will bring in much needed public facilities for the town as well as providing homes for 90 families who will spend money with businesses.

The developer was also due to provide a crucial flood defence scheme, without which no other development on the site can take place.

Attendees at the meeting heard that the town council was very disappointed to learn that development management members had put their desire for affordable homes for the district ahead of the specific needs of Seaton, as well as ahead of EDDC's own stated policies to regenerate the town.

Many members of the public spoke up in support of the Axe Riverside Seaton Quay proposal and were concerned that time was running out for the application.

If all reserved matters are not agreed by EDDC by spring of 2013, then the current application would lapse and the development would not take place, resulting in no planning gains for the town at all.

Seaton Town Council resolved to respond to the EDDC Development Management Committee by asking them to reconsider their decision for the future of the town.

The town council urges residents to write to Cllr Mark Williamson, Chairman of the Development Management Committee, EDDC, Knowle, Sidmouth EX10 8HL or e-mail mwilliamson@eastdevon.gov.uk, requesting him to allow this decision to be reviewed.

The town council also asks that all those who have written to the paper to express their views about this issue should also now write to Cllr Williamson to let him know how they feel.

Seaton to be 'Town Team Partner'

SEATON has been selected by central government as a Town Team Partner.

The initiative is spearheaded by the Department for Communities and Local Government and will see Seaton receive an element of funding and access to a national multi-million pound government support package.

The award comes on the back of the Portas Pilot following an application made through local MP Neil Parish.

As a result, Seaton Town Development Team can start delivering some of the projects identified to encourage greater activity in the town centre.

As a Town Team Partner Seaton will be able to receive advice and information from the Government including:

- assistance from leading retail experts;
- access to an advice line and network of advisers managed by the Association of Town Centre Management;
- mentoring and visits from a range of experts.

Seaton mayor Peter

Burrows said: "We are delighted to have been selected as a Town Team Partner. This is an important development for Seaton and is a welcome boost to our plans for regeneration.

"We are looking forward to working with the local community and businesses in moving forwards to create a more attractive and revitalized Seaton."

Village hall celebrates completed renovations

RESIDENTS of Colyford have celebrated the completion of a long programme of refurbishment works at their village hall.

Colyford Memorial Hall was officially re-opened following renovations on Saturday afternoon. An opening ceremony was led by hall chairman, Howard West, who announced he would be standing down as chairman in two weeks, as he had been elected Mayor of Colyford the previous evening and needed to concentrate on this.

Mr West welcomed a packed hall of guests, including Devon county councillor, Sara Randall-Johnson, and representatives of the Community Council for Devon.

He then introduced Philip Richards, chairman of the Colyton Chamber of Feoffees, which loaned £20,000 to the hall to complete its new roof and solar panelling - the final stage in an extensive programme of refurbishments.

Mr Richards said: "About 10 years ago I was asked to be a Feoffee and, as a born and bred Colytonian, I was very proud to accept. I am equally as proud today, as chairman of the Feoffees, to re-open this hall."

He said the hall committee had done a "marvellous job" with the refurbishments, and paid particular tribute to Clive Stone who project managed the roof replacement.

Mr Richards also pointed out that the number 56 was the theme of the day, as the hall first opened on November 3rd 1956 - exactly 56 years ago.

He then declared Colyford Memorial Hall officially re-opened.

Mr West thanked Mr Richards and the Feoffees for their recent loan, and a donation that went towards the hall's kitchen refurbishment several years ago.

He told guests that during the roof replacement in August the asbestos was found to be cracked and, had it not been replaced and Colyford had heavy snow this winter, the roof would have likely collapsed.

Mr West also thanked Colyton Parish Council which has donated £9,000 to the hall over the past three years and to the Community Council for Devon which had given a grant of £5,000, matched with £1,000 from East Devon District Council.

He added: "A very special, exceptional thanks goes to the Goose Fayre organisers and all their helpers. Every year, at least since I have been chairman of the hall, we have always had a very generous donation each year."

He also thanked Mr and Mrs Poutney, who host the Goose Fayre each year on their land.

"The Goose Fayre always offers to pay for use of the land and they always say no, give it to the hall as a donation instead. We have just received £100 for that."

Mr West said the committee had originally hoped local celebrity chef, Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall, would re-open the hall, but he was abroad and instead donated £100 to the cause.

He also thanked Councillor Randall-Johnson for securing a grant of £2,500 for a digital projection screen for the hall, and BT for providing a year of free broadband connection.

Finally, he thanked the hall's president, Harold Wakefield. Mr Wakefield said: "I decided to move to Devon because my wife was Devonian and I suddenly came across this village hall and thought 'what a village!', and there was a house for sale.

"That was 32 years ago and I have enjoyed those years here more than anywhere else."

Mr West then called John Bennett, Paula Collingwood, Clive Stone and Charles Harris, representing his late wife, Janet Harris, onto the stage to give his particular thanks to. He said they were "very important people who have made this possible".

Mr Stone said the success of the hall was down to "teamwork of the whole community".

Guests were then served cream teas. They returned in the evening for a show by Colyton Theatre Group, a quiz and line-dancing.

As well as the £50,000 roof project, the hall's refurbishment programme has included a new kitchen, tea servery, bar and new toilets, totalling about £120,000.

HALF-TERM activities at Colyton Library included a Halloween craft workshop, organised and led by Cynthia and Brian Boyt.

The two-hour session saw people of all ages make ghostly objects and listen to ghost stories, written and read by Brian. One of the stories involved some mysterious happenings on Seaton Tramway.

Among those attending was Alan Jones, his wife and grandchildren.

He said: "This imaginative couple give freely of their time to run occasional workshops for children in Colyton, and they and the library deserve our support." Cynthia and Brian can be contacted on 01297 552317.

News briefs

Wilkie's bread not wasted

A DONATION of £50 has been made to Colyton Carnival Committee, following the sale of bread left outside the now closed Wilkie's.

Following the closure of Colyton convenience store Wilkie's last month, deliveries of bread and newspapers were left outside the shop.

Anton Bolton of Colyton Butchers enquired with Hovis what should be done with the bread and was told to throw it away. Thinking this was a waste, he instead sold it on informed Hovis he had made £50. The company told him they were not able to accept the money raised, and instead he should donate it to a charity of his choice.

Mr Bolton chose to give the money to Colyton Carnival Committee.

Colyford Fayre raises over £900

THE total raised at the recent National Trust Axe Valley Centre Autumn Fayre, featured in last week's Pulman's View From Colyton, has been announced as £958.

Centre member Jim Marks said: "The committee thanks all those who came to the fair on Saturday October 27th for their generosity.

"Funds raised by the Axe Valley Centre are donated mainly to East Devon National Trust properties such as A la Ronde, Killerton and Branscombe. Last year the centre contributed £1,500 towards the restoration of Branscombe Water Mill and a further £1,500 this year to help pay for flood damage to the leat stream, paths and fences.

"The committee hopes that those who enjoyed the event will come again next year for the spring fair at Colyford Memorial Hall on Saturday April 27th."

Remembrance Day service

THIS year's Remembrance Day service will be held at 10.45am on Sunday, November 11th at St Andrew's Parish Church in Colyton.

As this year Armistice Day and Remembrance Day fall on the same day, the two-minute silence at 11am will form part of the church service.

The service will be followed by the laying of wreaths on the war memorial outside the church, expected to take place at about 11.30am.

What we do:

THE Royal British Legion is the UK's leading Armed Forces charity.

We provide practical, emotional and financial support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families.

We actively campaign to improve their lives and safeguard the Military Covenant between the nation and its Armed Forces.

We also organise the Poppy Appeal, run one of the UK's largest membership organisations and are recognised as the nation's custodian of Remembrance.

Our Services:

WHETHER it's families coping with the loss of a loved one, help at home to adapt to independent living, recovery centres for injured personnel, money and careers advice or residential care: we are here to help. Nearly 9 million people are eligible to access our welfare services and we aim to help the most in need. As the legacy of Afghanistan and Iraq combine with defence cuts, strains on public sector support and a peak in welfare demand from older veterans; the Service community is facing a perfect storm of health and welfare needs in the coming years. The Royal British Legion is here to support them.

What the poppy means:

THE poppy is an instantly recognisable symbol of respect for those who've made the ultimate sacrifice in conflicts past and present.

As the nation's custodian of Remembrance, the Legion is committed to helping everyone understand the importance of Remembrance, so those sacrifices are never forgotten.

Field of Remembrance:

THE first Field of Remembrance was held in the grounds of Westminster Abbey in November 1928.

That year only two Remembrance Crosses were planted.

But it began a tradition that took root and has grown and grown over the decades.

Each Cross carries a personal message to someone who lost his or her life in the Service of our country.

Amanda Binnie plants a Cross in memory of her husband Sean who died while serving in Afghanistan.

She finds the rituals of Remembrance are part of the healing process.

"They bring home how many people have lost their lives and how important it is that we never forget what they have done for this country."

Flanders field of poppies:

IN 1918, 11 November signalled the end of The Great War; the Armistice was signed. Since 1921, the nation has come together to remember the sacrifices that hundreds of thousands of British and Commonwealth Service men and women made - not just during the Great War, but World War 2 and all subsequent wars and conflicts including Iraq and Afghanistan.

To salute all these heroes and express the gratitude they deserve this Remembrance Day, the Legion is planting a "Flanders Field" of Poppies beside the ramparts of the Menin Gate Memorial in Ypres.

Please be part of this heartfelt act of commemoration by dedicating a poppy with your personal message. Every poppy planted is one more deed of courage remembered. The Menin Gate is unique because it is the only place in the world where the fallen of the Great War are remembered each day.

The Appeal is the Legion's biggest fundraising campaign and runs year-round. Lapel poppies are available to buy in shops, supermarkets, pubs and clubs from the last week of October until Remembrance Sunday, or 11th November, whichever is later in the calendar.

It takes 350,000 volunteers and staff to organise the Poppy Appeal each year. Money raised goes to support our welfare work for the Armed Forces community.

More than 40 million Remembrance poppies, 500,000 poppies of other types, 5 million Remembrance petals, 100,000 wreaths and sprays, 750,000 Remembrance Crosses and other Remembrance items are made at the Poppy Factory each year.

The 2010 Poppy Appeal raised a staggering £36 million, smashing all previous records. This target for the 2011 Appeal (October 2011 to September 2012) is £40 million.

History:

ON the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918, the First World War ended.

Civilians wanted to remember the people who had given their lives for peace and freedom.

An American War Secretary, Moina Michael, inspired by John McCrae's poem, "In Flanders Fields", began selling poppies to friends to raise money for the ex-Service community.

And so the tradition began.

Poppy Factory:

IN 1922 Major George Howson, a young infantry officer, formed the Disabled Society to help disabled ex-Service men and women from the First World War.

Howson suggested to the Legion that members of the Disabled Society could make poppies, and the Poppy Factory was subsequently founded in Richmond in 1922.

The original poppy was designed so that workers with a disability could easily assemble it and this principle remains today.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

FATHER Michael Koppell opens this week: If one were asked to state, in a single sentence, just what it is which makes us Christians different, one might well be tempted to reply that we're a people of hope.

And our Christian hope is special because it's not only for a time but also for eternity. It's good to keep that in mind as we approach Remembrance Sunday and think of the brave people who gave their lives in world wars and in many other conflicts of our troubled time. We remember all those men and women with admiration and with gratitude, but, above all, with hope: the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembrance Sunday Services, often including the planting of poppies and laying of wreaths will be taking place in the majority of local churches and chapels, and some in the open air on November 11th. Many will start just before 11am, to recall the fallen in two Great Wars and the smaller operations since.

In the preceding week many churches keep All Saints' Day on November 1st and All Souls' Day on the day following, remembering other faithful departed.

At the beginning of the month members of the former Allhallows School unveiled a memorial plaque to those who gave their lives in the Second World War. This was followed by an annual Memorial service in St Paul's Church in Honiton, close to where the school was founded in the 16th century.

On November 15th Honiton Deanery Synod meets in Axminster Church at 7:30am – non-members welcome.

Jam jars and church events – Readers will be aware that there has been some controversy and press comment on the re-use of jam jars for church events, suggesting that this was against the law. The Churches Legislation Advisory Service notes that the issue has generated much discussion – not to say derision – that risk of prosecution is now minimal. For advice from CLAS, telephone 020 7222 1265.

Church of England parishes are conscious that November is a critical month for their affairs, with their General Synod meeting in London from November 19th-21st. They are expected to come to a decision on the matter of Women Bishops and, in the same month, the Anglican Church at home and overseas will be awaiting the name of the next Archbishop of Canterbury.

Anglican Parishes should register with the Land Registry before October 2013 all local ancient responsibilities (non-church) for chancel repairs, failing which, future costs of work will fall upon the local churches. These responsibilities date from the Dissolution of the Monasteries and must be recorded to obtain future financial assistance.

BALLROOM dancer Mike Hatch is originally from Enfield, Middlesex, and has lived all over the UK as well as Geneva in Switzerland and the Loire Valley in France. He settled in Colyford after his wife passed away. Before retiring, Mike worked as a university lecturer specialising in information technology, accountancy and finance. He now focuses full-time on dancing and is starting classes at Colyford Memorial Hall tomorrow (Wednesday).

● WHY did you take up ballroom dancing?

It is such a long time ago now that I really can't remember the exact reason why. When I was a teenager I was mad on cricket and it would appear that cricketers make good dancers. Mark Ramprakash and Darren Gough have both won Strictly and last year's winner, Harry Judd, was the star of the Sport Relief celebrity cricket team that recently toured India. My parents were both very good ballroom dancers and used to enter competitions and so perhaps it is just in my blood.

● WHEN did you learn?

I first took up ballroom dancing back in 1972 at a very young age. I went to the Vernon Johnson School of Dance in Liverpool. I remember walking down Penny Lane to go to my lessons there.

● WHAT'S your favourite dance and why?

If you had asked me this question three months ago, I would have said the jive, provided it is fast and furious. However, my dancing partner, Denise, and I have since taken up the Argentine tango and I have fallen in love with it. The figures are so intricate and varied. Moreover, within a piece of music the rhythm keeps changing and so it gives the performer a real opportunity to express him or herself on the dance floor.

● HAS there been an upsurge in interest in dancing since Strictly Come Dancing?

I think when the series first hit the airwaves, there was a massive upsurge in the number of people who wanted to learn to dance. Interest has now died down a bit, but it is still there. Perhaps though the return of tough economic times will lead more people to search for something different in their lives, as did those who danced away the Great Depression of the 1930s.

● TELL us about the classes in Colyford...

These will be designed for the absolute beginner – those who have never danced before or who claim they have two left feet. My dancing partner, Denise, and I will be aiming for a fun, friendly and relaxed class, because we believe that if you can create the right learning environment then people will make progress that much quicker. We will be starting with the basics; however, we hope to get couples up and onto the dance floor as soon as possible, without neglecting good technique. We will be teaching two ballroom dances, the waltz and the quickstep, and two Latin American dances – the rumba and cha cha cha. They are fairly easy to learn and seem to be the most popular ones, which are always played when people go out to a dance.

● WHAT are the benefits of taking up ballroom dancing?

There is no better way of meeting new friends and socialising. It is excellent for relaxing after a hard day's work, is good for lifting your moral and allows you to forget your problems. Learning to dance keeps the mind alert and the body active – it can reduce levels of stress, strengthen bones and muscles and help to control body weight. Dance also offers an activity for people who may not consider themselves as "sporty". The benefit of dance is not only that of increased exercise, but the participation in an art form, which is routed in technique, and which gives the opportunity for a creative outlet.

● WHAT are your other personal interests?

Learning foreign languages, especially French, German and Spanish. Yoga and swimming, watching cricket and rugby.

● WHAT do you like about living in Colyford?

The people, who are very friendly and always seem to have time for you. In addition, the peace and quiet and the lack of traffic. I used to live in rural France and the thought of going back to a large English town or city with its hurly-burly really fills me with horror.

● WHAT would you change about or add to the area if you could?

I would like to see a small French supermarket move into the area, because I do miss certain French produce, especially their wine and cheeses.

● WHICH three well-known dancers would you invite to a dinner party?

Ginger Rogers – one of the all time great female dancers. She would be able to give me the lowdown on what it was really like to dance with Fred Astaire. Gene Kelly – another dancing great, who would not only be able to tell me what it is like to dance and sing in the rain, but also how on earth it is possible to dance on roller skates – he performed this feat in the romantic musical fantasy film Xanadu. Anton Du Beke, the Strictly professional. As well as being a superb ballroom dancer, he is also a keen golfer, who plays off six and was a junior boxer and county footballer. At the same time, he is one of the funniest men on the planet.

Badger population should be reduced

THE recent sight of three road accident badgers within several hundred yards of each other is a reminder that the population of these animals is far too large for its own good.

As we know, the pilot culling schemes which were scheduled for parts of Gloucestershire and West Somerset have been postponed until some time next year, presumably the late summer when sows have had their cubs.

MPs voted by 147 to 28 in favour of a motion for the cull to be stopped and a vaccination programme for badgers to be pursued. This followed a five and a half hour debate as a result of a petition signed by 163,000 people opposing the ban.

Paul Wilkinson, who is Head of Living Landscapes for the Wildlife Trusts, said that it is time for the Government to listen to the views of scientists, the public and now MPs.

He went on "a badger vaccine is available now and improved biosecurity measures can help to reduce the spread of the disease (bovine TB) and in the longer term a cattle vaccine can play a very real part in helping deal with the problem..."

I have long maintained that the badger cull would be a trigger for rural chaos. Without question a small but vociferous group opposed to the cull were intent on causing havoc to the farming community and now that the cull has been delayed until next year, the more violent elements of opposition, some recruited from the discredited hunt saboteurs and similar movements, will have ample time in which to plan their opposition.

None are remotely interested in the welfare of cattle or the livelihoods of farmers, nor do they have any real understanding of the countryside and its management.

If people like the guitar player, Brian Auger, had any real grasp of the issues involved he could have an important role to play in making the wider public understand that badgers and foxes are not furry little people to be treated as lovable pets but living wild animals which kill a wide range of other creatures in order to exist.

My own view is that the cull is indeed a waste of time as far as any effect it might have on the significant reduction of bovine TB, but the badger population is now out of hand, and has been for some years.

Treated as some sort of rare and iconic animal, claimed to be an endangered species and so protected that one hardly dares so much as look at a badger sett, the expanding population is having a significant effect on other wildlife, notably hedgehogs, whilst there is little doubt that the animals themselves will become increasingly subject to disease. The badger population across the country should be reduced for its own sake and the sake of other wildlife.

A unique auction is under way as a means of raising money to assist Dorset's wildlife. Politicians, including David Cameron, musicians, actors and comedians have all donated original drawings for which one can bid on line.

The celebrities were asked to make a sketch of a British animal or plant. Many of the sketches from celebrities include fingerprint drawings, some are simple sketches, while singer Marty Wilde has painted a complete picture with a finger dipped in paint.

The first drawings, including those by Susan Hampshire and Fearnie Cotton went online on November 4th and the event will continue over the winter with all proceeds going to the protection of Dorset's wildlife.

Amongst the celebrities are Glenda Jackson, Robin Cousins, Prunella Scales and Daniel O'Donnell and to see their work among the 50 sketches submitted go to www.dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk/celebrityart

Osborne's Menswear, A new location, offering

David Bruce bought the business of Osborne's Big and Tall Menswear, with two long-standing employees, about 11 years ago. Sharon became involved about 4 and a half years ago, and together, David and Sharon are delighted to be celebrating their first month in Seaton. David, Sharon and Jim offer a friendly and professional service. After the years in Beer the store has a fantastic reputation locally and also thanks to their comprehensive website a growing reputation online.

One of the reasons for the relocation to Seaton was down to Sharon seeing the positive changes happening in the town and the plans for the future regeneration. With Osborne's being a successful business that has already stood the test of time, this new addition to Fore Street has been more than welcome. Local, loyal customers and new neighbours alike have expressed many well wishes.

Sharon says, "It's been a great start and we are working hard to care for our existing specialist sized customers and also our new smaller sized customers. Our ranges include trousers, mostly starting from waist 34, with some at waist 30/32". Prices start at £19.99 for trousers and jeans.

Shirts, knitwear and jackets are available in sizes ranging from small to 8XL, so there is something for everyone; many items making ideal Christmas gifts.

Osborne's is open 6 days a week from 9:30am -5pm with no half days. We extend a welcome invitation to all. To celebrate our first month in Seaton please come along on Wednesday the 7th November, and enjoy a celebratory glass of bubbly and yummy chocolates.

Sharon says, "Seaton is a wonderful seaside town and we are proud to be in the high street (Fore Street), supporting and working alongside both independent and national businesses. We encourage all who live and visit Seaton, to support and shop in the town. Many basic and much needed products and services are available and we all need to take individual responsibility to care for and invest in our beautiful town of Seaton - Long Live Seaton".

the same great service

History of Osborne's Menswear shop

Tony and Alma in 1968 after looking at many parts of Cornwall for a suitable gents and ladies outfitter, settled for the gent's outfitters belonging to Mr Woodgate of Fore Street, Beer.

Tony and Alma up to this point, had worked in St Austell at the same branch of firm called Hugh Wyllies. Tony was a salesman and Alma was a cashier. After winning continuous awards for his top sales, Tony decided that his skills would be better invested in his own business instead of for 'Great Universal Stores' and decided to give it a try.

Tony and Alma took over the business from Mr Woodgate in January 1969. Throughout the winter months, takings were low, but progressed as the summer months came and with that came the sale of swimwear and beach shoes etc.

A large show window was installed as a main feature to the shop, enabling the shop to show off its large sales area, with a growing need for more merchandise. Sales began to improve substantially and with this came the need to employ a couple of sales assistants.

As winter arrived again, Beer turned into a ghost town, with many shops closed for the winter, so Tony had an idea of specialising in bigger sizes for men. This came about after trying to buy a blazer for himself in C & A's in Exeter and finding that the sleeves came half way up his arms - which the assistant found very amusing. Tony being a big man himself thought that others must have a similar problem.

In 1981, to size up the market, Tony put an advert in the Exchange and Mart and was astonished by the result. One Tuesday he received £241 in the post, which in those days was equivalent to a week's taking in the winter months.

Realising the route to success was through advertising; Tony started to put single columns in the national papers, such as the Dailey Express and Dailey Mirror. These adverts cost £350 to £450 for each advert, but generated hundreds of replies.

Catalogues were then posted to customers, firstly in black and white, but quickly progressed to a 40 page coloured catalogue. Unfortunately with the success in this area of the market and the need for more space, it was decided to close the ladies department. Tony found it problematic being able to find manufacture that would make the goods in the sizes that his customers required which included suits up to 70 inch chest, trousers up to a 66 inch waist and shoes to a size 15.

Customers from far and wide stated it was cheaper to travel to Beer, stay the night in a hotel and stock up their clothes at Osborne's, rather than pay the prices in major cities like London. Amongst the celebrities that shopped at Osborne's was Bob Willis who was photographed with Tony outside the shop, Patrick Moore the astronomer and M.P.'s from the House of Commons.

In 1983, mail order becoming increasingly demanding. The business would not have been such a success without the hard work and dedication of the staff who worked for Tony and Alma and for that they have always extended their gratitude.

In 1989 Tony had to retire on advice from medical profession in order to have a multiple heart bypass operation, but continued to model with his friends; Andy Sydenham and Les Andrews for the current proprietors in the Osborne's catalogue.

Tony and Alma enjoyed 22 years of retirement before unfortunately losing Alma to cancer last year. He says that none of this would have been possible without her constant support and dedication to him and the business. Whilst Tony was at the fore front of the business it was only family and close friends that knew that Alma was an equal partner behind the scenes.

■ CHAMPIONS: Nicola Blackmore and Rebecca Bartlett of Bartlett's Farm Shop, and Gill Bond and Rebecca Bond of Otter Valley Dairy show off their prize haul at the Eden Project

Local producers win top awards

BARTLETT'S Farm Shop and Otter Valley Dairy are celebrating after clinching prestigious Taste of the West awards.

Bartlett's Farm Shop, which is based at Hayne Farm in Gittisham, triumphed in the Best of Burgers, Fag-gotts and Meatballs category with its pork and apple burger.

After being presented with the top prize at The Eden Project awards ceremony, Nicola Blackmore and Rebecca Bartlett of Bartlett's Farm Shop said: "We are very proud to receive this award from Taste of the West having only opened three years ago.

"It is an amazing achievement and sums up how we feel about producing fine food in an area where there are some fantastic food producers." Monkton-based Otter Valley Dairy won the Best of Ice Cream and Sorbets category with Olympic Medley.

Rebecca Bond of Otter Valley Dairy said: "We are absolutely delighted to have won this prestigious award for the second year in a row."

Ofsted success at Broadhembury

THE overall effectiveness of Broadhembury C of E Primary School has been judged "good" by Ofsted inspectors.

"Good" is the second highest mark available in the four-level grading system.

A report issued by inspectors said that pupils "are increasingly attaining above average results by the time they leave school". Inspectors also felt that the federation with Branscombe C of E Primary School, under the leadership of executive headteacher Katie Gray, has allowed the school to make substantial improvements since the last inspection in 2010.

To continue its good improvement, lead inspector Paul Garvey concluded that the school should increase the pace of learning by ensuring there is more time for pupils to tackle tasks independently, expand the range of extra-curricular activities and make more use of opportunities in the local community to boost pupils' learning.

Ms Gray said: "The whole school community is thrilled with the Ofsted report.

"I would like to thank the staff team who have worked really hard to develop the school and who have made the most of sharing expertise across our newly formed federation. I would also like to thank the children for the enthusiasm they showed during the inspection. They make this school such a rewarding and special place."

■ WORTHWHILE: Some of the pupils with their entries and certificates

A NUMBER of entries from Musbury Primary School were highly commended in the handwriting and painting categories at Colaton Raleigh Ploughing Association Show.

Teacher Steph Fiveash said: "The children painted various animals using a range of mixed media, including oil pastels, watercolour paints and coloured chalks.

"The younger children chose poems about different animals and then illustrated their poems using water-colour paints and pastels.

"The children thoroughly enjoyed the experience of creating their entries for the show and were delighted with their achievements."

Have your say on future of Hawkchurch

A PUBLIC consultation event has been called to discuss future development of Hawkchurch.

The village hall will be open from 10am to 1pm on Saturday, November 10th and parish council clerk John Vanderwolfe explained that the parish council, in association with East Devon District Council, has earmarked an expansion of 15 new homes over the next 14 to 15 years.

He added: "A number of possible sites have been suggested, and this public consultation will give people the opportunity to see the various possible sites, and to make their comments.

"I hope that as many people as possible will take the opportunity to drop in and have their say."

Ninety-five years of Thorncombe WI

■ THORNCOMBE WI celebrated the group's 95th birthday at the village hall last month and were joined by fellow members from Chideock, Broadwindsor and Blackdown for a special supper and birthday cake

Artist Webb has captive audience

HONITON ART SOCIETY

HONITON Art Society had an appreciative audience and a full house for their October meeting when David Webb gave a water-colour demonstration.

His subject was Dartmoor's Hay Tor, which he painted loosely using a limited palette of four colours; Raw Sienna, Burnt Sienna, Cobalt and Alizarin Crimson giving an harmonious feel to the finished picture. Although his washes were loose, he added some careful detail to the focal point of the rocks.

Several visitors from last month made a welcome return.

The next meeting is to be held in Awliscombe Village Hall on Monday, November 12th, from 2pm to 4pm when Warren Sealey will demonstrate Portraits in Oils.

Visitors and new members always very welcome. Visitors E2.

Celebrant speaks at East Devon Humanist Group

EAST DEVON HUMANIST GROUP

THE speaker at the October meeting of the East Devon Humanist Group was Jenny Lloyd, a celebrant with the British Humanist Association (BHA).

For some years now, more and more people are planning a non-religious funeral and an increasing number of couples want a non-religious wedding ceremony or a naming ceremony instead of a christening.

To meet these wishes, a network of celebrants, trained by the BHA, has been set up throughout the whole of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland that have their own arrangements. Jenny explained the training process and gave examples of how, in particular, she conducted funerals.

She read out poems and passages from literature that are suitable for such occasions. Her talk gave rise to a lively discussion.

The chairman thanked Jenny for her excellent presentation and announced that the next meeting will take place on November 14th at 7pm at the Senior Citizens' Centre, Church Street, Axminster when Keith Denby, chairman of Devon Humanists, will give a talk on Robert Fitzroy, Darwin's Captain.

To find more about humanism or about the activities of East Devon Humanists, please contact Ann on 01404 46766 or on email ann.ceremony@btinternet.com

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON WI

SEATON WI's latest meeting was held on October 16th, where members were delighted to welcome Gwen Jackson to the group.

A big thank you was given to Mary Wiseman who kindly held a Macmillan Cancer Coffee morning at her house which raised £105.10.

The speaker was Colin Gale, a retired Red Coat guide, who gave a very informative talk and slide show on Exeter History.

The Devon Federation Skittles Competition is under way and the group attended their first and sorry to say last game on October 23rd. It was a very enjoyable evening but Seaton WI were fairly beaten by the team from Newton Poppleford who go onto the next round, Seaton members wish them good luck.

The Autumn Group meeting held on October 24th at Seaton Methodist Church Hall was very well attended by over 70 ladies representing all of our local groups.

The speaker Nicola Karens from Lyme Regis kept the group enthralled as she related how she began making and designing Rare Knitwear.

Members modelled some of her wonderful creations; it was a delightful and absorbing demonstration and talk.

The competition for a handmade box of homemade sweets was judged by Vicky Fisher from 'Sweet Heaven' of Seaton. First prize went to Colyford, second Axmouth and third Seaton.

The next meeting is on November 20th.

Undemocratic vote?

■ DEVON Senior Voice (DSV), the voluntary forum for the over 50s, has serious concerns about the election on November 15th of a Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC), who will take over from the Police Authority as the overseer of the Devon and Cornwall police force.

The Commissioner will have the power to hire and fire the Chief Constable, and set the force's budget and strategic direction, but will not make operational decisions.

We believe the new system is flawed, for a number of reasons. We question the wisdom of introducing these expensive changes at a time when the number of police officers in England and Wales is being reduced by budget cuts. You just have to open your local newspaper in Devon to read that farm robberies have recently risen, including rustling of animals and theft of farm equipment and chemicals.

Devon is a large county, and many of our 2000-plus members live in rural and remote areas, leaving them more vulnerable to crime and resulting in fear and increasing social isolation.

Furthermore, why is just one person replacing the 19 members of the authority? Four out of the 10 candidates appear to be backed by political parties, which would, if that is the case, give the four more money and resources to contest this election.

This would mean that political candidates will be at an advantage over independents.

Should a Police

Commissioner be elected by political parties? The Electoral Commission has circulated all households with brief details about the purpose and role of a PCC.

But the leaflet gives no information about who is standing for election – if you want to know more, you are advised to visit a website or call a Freephone number to order printed information.

The government decided on cost grounds against the obvious policy of allowing candidates to post campaign literature about themselves to people's homes by Freepost, thus denying many the ability to make an informed democratic choice.

Finally, as the largest group of people who turn out to vote, we in DSV are seriously concerned at how democratic this election will be. Voting figures in local elections are generally low, and if that is the case the appointment will lack even the veneer of being democratic.

Lack of information will make commissioner vote difficult

■ I SHARE the concern expressed by your correspondents Bill Coltham and Mary Lewis with regard to the coming elections for the new post of Police and Crime Commissioner.

Bill Coltham makes the point that some of the candidates may have limited experience in the running of large organisations.

This may well be the case but I cannot see how we will be able to judge whether this is so considering the lack of information we have access too concerning the candidates and their backgrounds.

I very much agree with Mary Lewis that making an informed choice at these elections is going to be very difficult and that the public need much more information about the candidates if these elections are to have any valid result.

Senior Voice offers public opportunity to learn more

■ WITH only a week to go before the elections for Police and Crime Commissioner, many people lack information on the candidates and the issues.

We are pleased to invite members of the public to our Senior Voice hustings at 2pm on Wednesday, November 14th at Honiton Methodist Church (doors open for refreshments at 1.30pm).

This will be the only opportunity voters in Honiton area will have to meet candidates face to face and put questions on policing and crime issues.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Electoral Commission: "Run away from responsibilities"

■ THE Electoral Commission is responsible for "setting standards for well-run elections".

Does that not imply that they inform us of the intended policies of the Police and Crime Commissioner candidates, thus allowing us voters to make an informed decision?

How long does it take to implement this process?

I phoned the number given, only to be informed by an answer phone message that if the information booklet had not arrived by November 2nd I need to contact them again.

What a way to run away from their responsibilities.

BEAT THE WINTER BLUES WITH MICHELLE HAGUE

THE clocks have all gone back and the days are becoming shorter and shorter, and the weather seems to be the worst we have had for a long while, with the rain making the gardens sodden. Many people even without realizing it feel the affects of the lack of daylight or more specifically sunlight.

Seasonal Affective Disorder, or the Winter Blues, is recognised by health care professionals as a medical condition that is thought to affect around 2 million people in the UK and Ireland, and for many others it is another symptom of their depression.

A combination of a change in seasonal light, hectic lifestyles and the periods of darker days and the UK's poor weather, may result in dramatic effects on the body. As a direct consequence of these environmental and lifestyle factors more people than ever before are suffering from Seasonal Affective Disorder and Depression.

There are a diverse range of symptoms of Seasonal Affective Disorder; many are associated with a feeling of general depression - which is why it is sometimes known as the 'Winter blues'. Below is a list of possible symptoms.

Symptoms may include:

- Lethargy, lacking in energy, unable to carry out a normal routine
- Sleep problems, finding it hard to stay awake during the day, but having disturbed nights
- Loss of libido, not interested in physical contact
- Anxiety, inability to cope
- Social problems, irritability, not wanting to see people
- Depression, feelings of gloom and despondency for no apparent reason
- Craving for carbohydrates and sweet foods, leading to weight gain

While It is always important to consult your doctor if you believe you have SAD or are feeling depressed, once you have a diagnosis, medication is not always the only answer, shifts in motivation understanding the condition and finding ways to get your body doing what you want, and deal with the symptoms. Helped is at hand with clinical and cognitive hypnosis. Call Michelle Hague to make an appointment and see if she can help you take control of your life. 07761 773563.

WISE INTENTIONS 'REMEMBERING THEM' ON BBC RADIO

YOUNG band of brothers 'Wise Intentions' (Scott 17, Grant, 20 and Blake, 19) have surprised locals by paying a personal tribute to all of those who have lost their lives serving their country by writing a special Remembrance Day song called 'Remember Them'.

'Wise Intentions' were inspired to write this song on Remembrance Day last year, with powerful lyrics that encompass the heartfelt compassion which is felt when lives are lost.

You will get the chance of hearing 'Remember Them' as Wise Intentions will be performing this song as part of their live performance (and interview) as three of the guests on John Govier's Saturday Show being aired this Saturday morning, November 10th on BBC Radio Devon (show starts 9am, guests on from 10am – 1pm).

The brothers, have also shot a video for 'Remember Them'. This was filmed in Lyme Regis, and will soon be able to download on YouTube in time for the show, and subsequently be available to view afterwards.

Traditional Music from Rosie Carson and Kevin Dempsey

KEVIN Dempsey Kevin has music in his soul. In his long performing career, he has played and sung solo and in dozens of bands and line-ups from Percy Sledge to Whippersnappers. A guitarist, singer, songwriter and record producer, his wide range of experience in the UK and the USA provides the bedrock for his unique range of skills. Kev is not only a talented solo performer but also an outstanding ensemble player.

Rosie Carson began playing the fiddle at Riley School of Irish music in Cincinnati USA when she was 8 years old (she is now 19) and went on to study with Seamus Connolly, Liz Carrol, Liz Kane and Oisín Mac Diarmada. She has won national competitions for both fiddle and voice.

With Rosie's fiddle and beautiful singing, and Kevin's guitar, banjo and vocal these are two outstanding musicians, separated by a generation and maybe a culture, but certainly not by musical ability. www.kevindempsey.co.uk

Kevin and Rosie will be playing at St Michael's Church in Axmouth on the 16th November, 7.30pm. Adult tickets are £8 and Child tickets are £6 All profits will be going to the church.

& Management

Do you want to benefit from access to more than a century of building and construction experience?

Northcott Design & Management is a local company based in Colyton and has been formed by its three directors coming together to offer clients the opportunity to utilise their combined 100+ years of working in the construction industry.

Roger Brisley has been involved in architecture, planning and building regulations for more than 35 years and likes to keep up with the latest construction techniques and designs.

Paul FitzHenry is a specialist in contracts, tenders and project management and has run diverse projects locally and internationally, small and large.

Carl Northcott has been in construction and advising clients on design and building issues for more years than he cares to remember, his local experience is invaluable.

These three vastly experienced construction professionals have joined forces to offer the complete range of construction services that are essential to projects ranging from small domestic extensions and new builds to full commercial and public developments.

Your project could be:-

- At the conception stage – where you need help with design and planning issues.
- Post planning – where you need assistance with the selection of the most appropriate & cost effective builder, the administration of contracts or maybe some project management services.

- During construction and your project is encountering some unforeseen problems that require the input and support of a trouble shooter.

At Northcott Design & Management we will tailor our services to suit our clients' requirements. Whatever stage your project is at Northcott Design & Management is here to help you achieve the best result in the most cost effective manner and delivered in the best timescale.

Please contact us to receive a free one hour consultation with one of our directors.

Vauxhall sharpens new van leasing rates

- Enhanced finance deals across multi-award winning van range
- New rates on Corsavan, Astravan, New Combo, Vivaro and Movano
- British-built Vivaro available from just £199 per month excluding VAT

VAUXHALL has enhanced its finance deals across its multi-award winning commercial vehicle range.

Supported by the manufacturer's extensive dealer network and available on the Corsavan, Astravan, New Combo, Vivaro and Movano, the new contract hire rates mean that the entire Vauxhall CV model range is even more affordable.

For just £199.99 per month excluding VAT for business customers, the British-built Vivaro comes with the Extra Value Plus Pack, including: air conditioning, remote alarm and Electric Pack. Also UK-produced is the Astravan Sportive, available from £161.99 per month excluding VAT. The new-to-the-range Combo Van is available from £166.99 per month excluding VAT.

"Our new Vauxhall Leasing offering has been developed to meet the many challenges of running a modern van fleet," said Richard Collier, Vauxhall's National Commercial Vehicle and B2B Sales Manager.

"Our contract hire solution is both flexible and highly competitive in the marketplace, while our excellent regional coverage means customers can take advantage of the fully maintained packages which cover services and brakes and tyres, providing hassle-free motoring."

The lower rates, which include Roadside Assistance and Vehicle Excise Duty for the duration of the contract, mean that Vauxhall can now act as a one-stop-shop for customers' supply and fleet management needs.

Building over 70,000 vehicles alone last year at its plants in Luton and Ellesmere Port, Vauxhall is the UK's largest manufacturer of commercial vehicles.

Free winter check from Volkswagen commercial vehicles

OVER the past two winters, Volkswagen Roadside Assistance has attended 2,500 battery related call-outs and 700 wiper and washer related call-outs, so to make sure your van isn't a victim of the cold this year, take advantage of the free Winter Check now available from Volkswagen Van Centres and authorised repairers across the UK.

The free, 30-point Winter Check includes essentials such as battery, lights, tyres, wipers and washers, plus screenwash and antifreeze levels. If the screenwash is low, it will be topped up for free with Volkswagen genuine screenwash, which can cope with temperatures of minus 70°C. If any items need replacing, a range of Volkswagen approved replacements are available at competitive prices, including winter tyres, which provide extra grip and traction when temperatures fall below seven degrees.

In addition, Volkswagen

Commercial Vehicles has produced a video of top winter driving tips, with help from the Volkswagen Roadside Assistance partner, the RAC. This can be seen at www.volkswagen-vans.co.uk, or on YouTube at: www.youtube.com/vw-commercialvehicles.

'People don't realise the importance of basics like good quality screenwash which works at much lower temperatures than cheaper alternatives, or that the correct antifreeze level is essential to reduce the risk and cost of burst pipes or frozen water pumps,' said Stephen Bateson, Head of Aftersales and Customer Service.

'This free Winter Check will help van drivers keep their vehicles on the road this winter, and save the cost of unnecessary repairs and lost business if they breakdown,' he continued.

To find your nearest participating Volkswagen Van Centre, call 0800 717131 or visit www.volkswagen-vans.co.uk. For the latest updates follow Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles on Facebook: facebook.com/VolkswagenCommercialVehicleUK or Twitter @Volkswagen_CV.

A useful start in Life

ARE you maybe thinking of a very useful present for a birthday or Christmas? Then perhaps some driving lessons could be the answer. I have vouchers from £24-£45 or maybe a course of lessons (discounted) it could be the best present ever! Having a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to co-ordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins. If you have already passed your theory test then there is a strong possibility that you can still pass your practical be-

not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

Brake reaction: thousands of casualties caused by poor driver vision

A REPORT out today commissioned by insurer RSA, has found that road crashes caused by poor driver vision result in an estimated 2,900 casualties and cost £33 million per year.

Brake and RSA are calling for the numberplate test to be replaced with a requirement for drivers to have a proper vision test with a qualified professional at the start of their driving career, and mandatory re-testing every 10 years thereafter linked to driving licence photocard renewal. Drivers should also be encouraged to voluntarily have their eyes tested every two years in line with NHS recommendations.

Julie Townsend, deputy chief executive, Brake, the road safety charity, said: "This report gives an indication of how many violent and devastating casualties on our roads could be prevented through a simple eye examination. Being able to see clearly what's in front and around you is fundamental to safe, responsible driving. That's why we urge drivers to have an eye test at least every two years, even if you think your sight is fine. We also hope to see common sense winning through and the government tightening up the rules on driver eyesight. To make our roads safer and ensure everyone is fit to drive we need a scientific eyesight test at the start of your driving career and compulsory re-tests at least every 10 years thereafter."

Vikings sunk by late cup goal

REPORTS

Sidmouth Res 1 Exeter CS 2

Devon & Exeter division two

SIDMOUTH will look back on Saturday's 1-2 defeat by visiting Exeter Civil Service and feel like they have been 'mugged' after dominating possession for much of the match.

They started brightly and were passing the ball around well, creating several close misses. At the other end the defence were battling with the visitors centre forward who was proving to be a thorn in their side, and would be all game.

Midway through the first-half the hosts missed a penalty and went on to miss more chances so at half time it stayed 0-0.

The Vikings flew out of the blocks in the second-half and after hitting the woodwork they went ahead when another penalty was put away confidently from JP Staniforth, that should have been the spark for them to comfortably see the game out.

But they let Civil back and a low shot through a crowd of players gave the Vikings' keeper had no chance.

The visitors then scored what proved to be the winner. The Vikings threw three men forward and put the visitors under intense pressure but couldn't get the ball in the net and the game finished in a disappointing defeat.

Manager Nick Ogden was perplexed he said: "We played some good football but at any level you have to take your chances and that's what ultimately cost us.

I'm disappointed because this was a chance that's gone begging", Matt Colson got the manager's Man-of-the-Match vote.

Ogden may ring the changes for Saturday's game at Topsham and bring in players who missed out last Saturday.

He said: "It's a squad thing - and because we have the players available I will change things".

Axminster Res 4 Bampton 1

Devon & Exeter division four

AXMINSTER Reserves, playing back at their beloved Sector Lane, flew out of the blocks and took the lead after only three minutes through Adam Whitehouse from an acute angle following good work from Matt Hower.

Two minutes later it was 2-0 when Joel Seward knocked in a cross from Whitehouse, the Tigers were playing some scintillating football and it was surprising that the score stayed like that until half-time.

After the break Axminster continued to put pressure on the Exmouth goal, but could not get that elusive third goal and in the 70th minute Exmouth got a goal back.

Instead of panicking the Tigers went down the other end and scored their third through Paul Dudley after a superb crossfield pass from Hower and 2 minutes later Ollie Highet ran through the Exmouth defence to extend the lead to 4-1.

Exmouth pulled another goal back in the 76th minute with a terrific strike from outside the box, but Seward rounded off the scoring shortly after to make the game safe.

Tigers manager Alan Beer, in addition to Hower, was impressed by the form of Leigh Beer.

Axmouth Utd 3 Bampton 4

Devon & Exeter division four

FOLLOWING last week's heroics Axmouth United depleted squad surrendered their undefeated record in the last three minutes against visiting Bampton.

Home manager Laurie Forino was once again forced to name himself in the starting line-up which included several players who were carrying injuries.

Despite this goals from Matt Ellis, Joe Berry and Charlie Clarke saw them lead 3-1 before a penalty awarded against the run of play to Bampton made it 3-2 at half-time.

Soon after the restart the sides were level at 3-3 and the Axes looked to be hanging on to a point until a late breakaway saw Bampton seal victory in the closing stages.

Forino was philosophical he said: "Of course we are all disappointed that we couldn't keep them out at the end, but to be fair, they deserved the win.

"I can't blame the lads as they have given everything again, and we almost got the point, but we just have too many injuries and absences to deal with at the moment.

"It's testament to the club and squad that we still managed to play today and I'm proud of the effort and spirit.

"Hopefully the situation will improve in the next couple of weeks and we can maintain our position and look to push on."

ROUND-UP

COLATON RALEIGH won a magnificent tie against Plymouth-based HIDEAWAY CAFE 5-4 after extra-time.

The winning goal came from player-manager Riki Pitter which completed his hat-trick. Jake Boyland and Mark Pavey, who was sent off in the 20th minute for a second yellow card, were Colaton's other scorers.

HONITON TOWN beat BRIGHAM FC 4-2 with Darren Witt, Tim Genders, Brian Dunn and Ben Pryce converting a first ever penalty kick.

Back in the Devon & Exeter League NEWTOWN are the new Premier division leaders following their 2-0 victory at BEER ALBION.

It was a sad day for the Fishermen who held a minute's silence for former manager Ron Driver who passed away earlier this week. Ron enjoyed three promotions as manager for Beer in the 70s and 80s and oversaw the team to numerous cup triumphs.

SEATON TOWN also won 2-1 but were given a very hard test by BUDLEIGH SALTERTON. Jacob Hayes and Cameron Ver, with an 86th minute winner were Seaton scorers.

In Division 3 OTTERY ST MARY celebrated their first victory since dropping out of the South West Peninsular League - a 2-0 triumph at the UNIVERSITY.

Flamingos made it four straight wins with a comfortable victory over the Weather Girls.

With Sonia Yorke calling the shots they were 13-0 up at quarter time. In the second period Becky Green got the Met Office side up and running and the quarter went goal for goal with Flamingos 20-6 ahead at half way. But Flamingos ran out 46-14 winners.

Upplowman held on to the top spot thanks to a big win over Tip Top Trees.

With Mandy Norman in great form, Upplowman led from the start and recorded a 64-13 win despite the best efforts of Molly Simpson who played very well.

OPG maintained their second place in the division with a 33-12 win over Signs South West. Helen Wright was the star for OPG whilst Debbie Wheeler caught the eye for SSW.

THE club have enjoyed some very close matches during the past fortnight.

The Ladies lost 53-57 in a very tight triples friendly game at Madeira with an excellent 24-18 win for Daphne Ryan, Marion Harris, & Sheila Martin.

Meanwhile, the men lost 53-57 home to Westlands in another friendly triples game with a good 20-17 win for Brian Downton, John Hill & George Mabon.

In the mixed friendlies we had a good 77-39 win at home to Feniton with wins for Margaret Brown, Daphne Ryan, David Harris & Howard Keep (27-10), Lilian Lovatt, Mike Preston, Ann Clayton & Marion Harris (26-14), and Morrison Brown, Mary Preston, Chris Todd & Margaret Crompton (24-15).

We then had a rather flattering 99-39 home win against Chardstock with wins for Pam Clark, Marion Harris, Brian Clark & Sheila Martin (39-8) and Joan Quick, Stephen Apsey, David Harris & Margaret Crompton (41-11).

We then lost 45-64 at Honiton with a winning rink of Joan Quick, Ann Clayton, Mike Knight & Eric Skeemer (18-16).

Unfortunately we lost our mens Over 60s match in the Devon League (51-100) against the very strong Torquay United Club with our best effort coming from the home rink of Geoff Clode, Eric Skeemer, Doug Looskan & Paul Moffitt who lost narrowly 17-22.

COLYTON (6-2) and Sidbury (5-3) each recorded home wins this week which leave Colyton in the top place of the Evening League while Sidbury remain fourth just one point behind.

In the afternoon, Beer's point at Colyton keeps them in top place one ahead of their opponents.

In the second division Seaton Cliff A's second 8-0 win maintains their 100 percent record at the top of the division one place ahead of their B team colleagues who won 7-1 away; the other winners in this division were Hemyock, 7-1, and the third Seaton Cliff team, D, by a 5-3 margin.

The final afternoon winners were Colyton's B team, 6-2.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIOR CLUB

LAST Friday the Seniors took part in a three-man Bowmaker Stableford for the Silver Salver.

Intermittent showers had an influence on the play with the final scores slightly down on 2011.

The winners, with 68 points, were Gilbert Cox, Chris Jowett & Tony Horton. Two teams recorded scores of 66 with second place on countback going to Malcolm Glass, Charles Whitbourn & Iain Bain, and third to Gerry Turner, Geoff Hubbard & Peter Knighting.

The highlight of the morning came in the final group - an ace (1) at the 11th by Peter Rollason. There were also two 2s from Nick Stanton and Chris Jowett.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Dave Morgan's week became one to forget last week - although he started brightly enough in the Captain v Vice Captain Challenge.

Morgan won the battle but lost the war by recording a victory over Captain Paul Dimond in their head-to-head match but conceded the subsequent team game 5 to 4.

After that it was round 1 of the Sun Am Winter league where, with partner Ron Graham, they faced an easier challenge against Andy Wagner who was playing on his own.

Testing times for Honiton

WITH KEITH JENKIN

SIDMOUTH 19 OLD REDCLIFFIANS 24 INJURIES are forcing the Blackmoor club to select from a larger squad than they would wish at the present time and it was a much changed side that took the field against the thriving visitors.

Undoubtedly it was Old Reds who started the stronger. They took up residence in the home twenty two and turned pressure into points immediately, through their out half.

He dummed his way over close to the posts, converted his own try, and then kicked two penalties before the game was fifteen minutes old.

Eventually Sidmouth got hold of the ball and set up an attack that, although it came to nought, enabled them to gain some field position from which Tom Whelan got his side on to the scoreboard by kicking a penalty goal.

The visitors came straight however and increased their lead by scoring a try after a successful catch and drive by their pack.

This gave them a 18-3 lead and it was essential that the next score came from Sidmouth. It duly did when, after a 50-yard move had set up the position, Whelan dummed and got over.

He converted his own try and, although the Old Reds fly half kicked his third penalty late in the half to take the score-line to 10-21, nothing was yet resolved.

It was Sidmouth who settled first in the second period, and some astute tactical kicking by Whelan and Retter kept them on the front foot.

They began to edge their way back, first through a Retter drop goal, and subsequently via a Whelan penalty. Redcliffians responded however, and their replacement out half gathered three points for his side with a successful place kick on the hour.

This was Sidmouth's best period and they were denied from taking the lead by a post that caused the ball to bounce unkindly and foxed the following Chris Higgs.

The visitors' pack were gaining an edge however and they pinned Sidmouth back in defence for long periods.

They broke out eventually and Retter kicked a penalty to bring his side into contention at 19-24 with just a few minutes remaining. Sidmouth's rally continued and they pounded the visitors line throughout time added on for injury.

They could not score however and had to be content with a losing bonus point to show for their afternoon's work.

IVYBRIDGE 54 HONITON 18

IT is beyond doubt that Honiton are in the toils at the present time.

They are finding Western Counties rugby a little rich for their blood; something that is hardly surprising for it represents the highest level at which the club has ever competed.

This is allied to the fact that they have lost several pivotal players to long-term injury. Jason Hannay (neck), Coutts-Tucker (collar bone), and Barrett (hand) being the latest additions to a pretty long list.

They travelled to Ivybridge on Saturday last, a side whom they might have stood a chance of beating, had they been able to pick from a full squad.

As it was they were outgunned, especially in the first-half. In fact they did not help themselves, conceding half-a-dozen penalties in as many minutes and finding themselves 14 points in arrears well before the 20 minute mark.

Their problems continued throughout the half and, although out half Meadows was successful with a couple of penalty kicks, they still trailed 32-6 at the halfway stage.

The second period was marginally better for them. Isaac Dalton got over for a try that was goaled by Meadows, who also scored an unconverted try of his own.

The home side went on its merry way however and were certainly in command throughout.

HONITON 2nd 25 TOPSHAM 2nd 15

ALTHOUGH Honiton faced the slope initially at Allhallows, they certainly started the brighter, taking the lead with an unconverted try by prop Matt Olive who took a crash ball at pace and barged over from close range.

Ian Floyd scored the next, again using his weight to very good advantage and, when out half Chris Sampson ran in from the ten-yard line, the home side were in control.

Old lag Richard Woolacott then put his hand up for his side by scoring try number four and, although the visitors retaliated by kicking a penalty goal, skipper Tom Churchward's bonus point try just before the break kept his side in control at the halfway stage.

Good manners prevent me from mentioning the name or names of the Honiton place kickers.

They had kicked no conversions thus far and could not amend that record when Dave Wellington scuttled over in the second period to complete his side's scoring.

With the game now won, Honiton did relax just a little and Totnes came back with tries, one of which they converted to give the score line respectability by the end.

outcome as they took the first two holes with ease. But as was symptomatic of Dave's week they lost the match 2 and 1.

This opening day saw another single-ton victory when Andy Sharland returned to the clubhouse with an equally broad smile.

Tuesday's Chivers Goblets match was a Greensome Stableford drawn for playing partners.

The winning couple who were presented with the Chivers Goblets from Lady Captain Jackie Seager were Cherry Liell & Andy Sharland with 34pts.

In 2nd place were Heather Clarke & Robert Hendrick with 31pts and in 3rd place were Ann Desmoulins & Paul Ritchie with 29pts.

Lady Captain Jackie thanked Ro and Chris Poole who had organised the Mixed competition for the month of October.

Forty nine ladies took part in our annual "Children in Need Competition" on Wednesday which was a 3BBB with 2 scores to count over 14 holes.

Yet again we had tough conditions, with umbrellas definitely in need, the winners were Henrietta Bradshaw, Lesley Oxenham and Liz Rogers with 53pts.

Players and other members enjoyed a sumptuous and lunch after the game and over £235 was raised for the Charity.

PREVIEW

THE leagues take a rest on Saturday next, when local cup competitions hold centre stage.

SIDMOUTH have a home game against PAIGNTON and, although historically speaking the Blackmoor side have had little joy against these opponents, this season they bested them comfortably, and on their own patch at that.

Cup games often throw up unexpected results, but I do think that Sidmouth will make home advantage count in this one.

HONITON could certainly do with a week off to regroup and lick their wounds. No such luck, for they entertain PLYMOUTH BARBARIANS who, although they are from a lower division, are nobody's mugs.

This presents something of a quandary for the Allhallows side. Should they pick the best side available and go all out for a morale-boosting win, or should they give many a much needed rest and let the result go?

It will, in all probability be a "damned if you do, damned if you don't" decision. I wish them luck with it.

As to the second sides, Sidmouth seconds will certainly have their hands full when they visit their Crediton counterparts, while who knows just what Honiton seconds will face when they entertain Exeter University.

FIXTURES - November 10th

Honiton Hornets 10 White Eagle 3rds 1

HONITON fielded a strong side and were not disappointed with four goals in the first half against visiting White Eagle 3rds.

Vanessa Trude opened the scoring in second minute after good work from Amy Phillips.

Laura Frank added number two before Trude and Katrina Tucker, a superb reverse stick effort from an acute angle put Honiton away and clear.

In the second half White Eagles pulled a goal back before Trude completed her hat-trick and further goals from Player-of-the-Match Phillips (2) Laura Clark and Emma Adams push the score into double figures.

Honiton now top Petroc 2 league with a match away to Sidmouth and Ottery 3rds next week who are currently lying in second place.

NINE Honiton Running Club members took part in Axe Valley Runner's Yarrowcombe Yomp last weekend.

The route is made up of a five mile loop of mud, hills, water and fields and runners can choose to run it twice completing 10 miles or finish having completed one loop.

Alex Todd of AVR won the race convincingly with a time of 1 hour 12 minutes.

Steve Davey was first back for Honiton finishing in 7th place in 1:24 winning a prize for first male over 50.

Howard Bidmead had a great run finishing 19th in 1:31 and Graham Rooms managed to knock about five minutes off last year's time to finish 25th in 1:34. John Burgess managed to stay on his feet for the second year running finishing 33rd in 1:43.

Gerry finished in 40th place in 1:54. It was Kathy Layzell's completed Honiton's line up in 48th place in 2:16.

Honiton junior member, Henry Riddle, won the five mile race in 42:26 and Val Hales finished 13th in 1:10 winning the first local resident's prize.

Many thanks to Robin Carter, AVR and all involved in organisation as well as the friendly marshals and landowners but special thanks to the ladies responsible for the delicious soup and cakes awaiting runners upon their return.

A small band of runners from Honiton RC crossed the border into Somerset on Sunday to run the Ilminster 10k.

The race is all on road, but heavy overnight rain interspersed with a little snow meant that part of the course resembled a river.

The route can best be described as undulating with a mile long hill just before the half-way point.

The nature of the course doesn't normally give many personal best times, however nobody told Graham Reeves who recorded his best ever 10k time of 40:25. It can't be long before Graham gets under the magic 40 minute mark.

Next home was Nick Thorpe, a very unusual placing for him, in 49:10, his best 10k for some time. Sarah Warren was close behind in 51:00, after leading Nick at the half-way point. Claire Melbourne and Sandra Thorpe came next and were separated by just two seconds in 56:09 and 56:11 respectively.

Claire is regaining her pre Edinburgh Marathon pace and Sandra was delighted after recently returning to running after a year's absence due to injury.

Special mention must go to Val Hales who not content with running the Yarrowcombe Yomp on Saturday, turned up and raced again. She finished in 67:41.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

THE Yarrowcombe Yomp was the muddiest, wettest and one of the toughest multi-terrain runs so far this year and AVR turned out a large contingency as usual.

The first two places in both male and female runners in the 10 mile run were taken by AVR runners.

First home in 1:12.36 was Alex Todd who made this achievement even more unbelievable by running the first lap of the two lap course with only one trainer on, having lost one in the first slurry bog! A kindly marshal lent him a size 8 trainer so he could complete the second lap wearing two!

In second place was Patrick Devine-Wright in 1:13.48. First lady home was Amy Greenhage who ran an incredibly strong race finishing 6th overall in 1:23.40.

Martin Croad was in a superb 9th place taking 1:24.17. Tim Sibley was 14th, 1:28.01, Robin Britton 17th, 1:30.32, Mark Hilder 20th, 1:32.05 and Ian Clements 21st, 1:32.07. Then came the second lady overall Eleanor Wood 23rd in 1:33.43 followed by Steve Reynolds who was 31st, 1:40.42 and Margaret Pearce in her longest ever run 38th in 1:51.22.

The five mile run, covering just one of the laps, had three AVR runners - James Sibley ran really well to finish second overall in 46:47 followed by Rick Wood who finished in 5th place taking 52:47 and Siobhan Reddy 8th in 54:53.

As is customary at this race, we were all treated to soups and cakes a plenty. Many thanks to Robin Carter and her amazing crew for organising such enjoyable runs.

With 2012 drawing to a close the East Devon Community Race Series is now complete with AVR's taking the top five positions.

Phil Bayliss was the victor with 762.3 points, Tim Lenton 2nd, 724.6 and Robin Britton 3rd, 708 points. First lady and 4th overall was Eleanor Wood amassing 704.7 and Alex Todd was 5th, 682.9.

Anyone who ran in any of 11 qualifying races had their best five count towards the series overall.

Lesley Adams ran the Foundation for Conductive Education 10k today, finishing in 56:27. This was almost a minute faster than the same race last year.

Seasiders moving up the table

SEATON Town, runners-up in the Devon and Exeter Premier Division last season, are starting to show the form that saw them make an unsuccessful attempt to join the South West Peninsular League.

With eight games played, the Seasiders lie in a comfortable seventh place on 16 points, having picked up their fifth win of the season on Saturday over struggling Budleigh Salterton.

Cameron Vere secured the three points with a late winner in the 86th minute.

On Saturday Seaton manager Josh Stunell will be looking to narrow the gap further on the league leaders when they entertain neighbours and old rivals Beer Albion.

The Fishermen are not enjoying the best of seasons, having picked up just two victories so far this season but pride will ensure that they put up a good show at Colyford Road on Saturday.

when a minute's silence was held at Furzbrake in honour of Ron Driver, a former manager, who died recently.

Colyton, who are still looking for the first win of the season in Division One, are at home to Alphington who have only chalked up one victory in eight games.

Axminster Town Reserves, making a rare appearance on their beloved Sector Lane, continue to set the pace in Division Four.

On Saturday they boosted their points tally to 24 with a 5-2 win over Exmouth Amateurs.

This coming Saturday they are at home again to Woodbury, who have picked up just two wins this season.

◆ AXMINSTER Town start a crucial four-game period with a trip to South West Peninsular Division One East high slyers Exmouth Town.

Manager Paul Ashford has a full strength squad at his disposal and will be keen to avenge the 4-1 defeat a few weeks ago when Exmouth put the Tigers out of the Devon Premier Cup.

If Axminster are to maintain their impressive league form this season which sees them occupying third place in Division One they need at least a point at Exmouth.

◆ MILLWEY Rise's Devon Intermediate Cup fixture at Mochard Bishop on Saturday was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch so the Blues make the journey to the Devon and Exeter Division Six mid-tables again this coming Saturday.

Millwey Rise Reserves, mid table in Perry Street League Division Three, went down 2-0 at home to Drimpton on Saturday and this week entertain Luso-Chard.
